1 How does the speaker describe a typical team?

She says a typical team has common goals and objectives / is clear about these;
understands individual roles; includes a balance of skills; achieves results.

2 What parallels does the speaker draw with 'flying geese'?

they achieve more than any individual could they need to be in agreement about where to go
take turns with harder / less attractive tasks
they look after each other
they praise and feedback

3 How does she apply this to a team meeting?

- 1 Listen to other people's points of view
- 2 If you need to interrupt, add value to what is being said
- 3 Understand that people have different preferred styles
