

FULL TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR COMPETITION TO BE JUDGED IN 2011. Please read carefully and take all points into consideration.

- The competition will close on 3rd June 2011 at 9.00am (BST). The competition is only open to entrants who are aged 18 years or above as at the closing date of the competition. No joint entries are allowed. Only one entry may be made per person.
- There will be no more than 2 prize winners. The prize is 10 days unpaid work experience for the winners with Macmillan Education based in Oxford and may include travel to other cities in the UK. We will, however, give the winners £100 spending money each. Also included in the prize are return economy class flights to a London airport from the winner's home airport agreed with us and accommodation in a Macmillan Education apartment. Meals, transfer costs and other expenses are the responsibility of the winner.
- We cannot be responsible for winners who are denied visas or for any costs associated with obtaining them. Winners denied visas will not necessarily be offered alternatives. Participants must have a valid passport and visa (if necessary) and be willing to travel between 30th July and 14th August 2011. Insurance is not included. Participants must arrange their own travel insurance.
- The Promoter accepts no responsibility for any damage, loss, liabilities, injury or disappointment incurred or suffered by anyone as a result of their entering the competition or accepting the prize. The Promoter further disclaims liability for any injury or damage to any computer relating to or resulting from participation in or downloading any materials in connection with the competition. Nothing shall exclude the liability of the Promoter for death or personal injury as a result of their own negligence.
- By submitting your video and entry you are confirming that you have the permission from everyone featured in the video (or their parent or guardian where they are under 18) to enter it into the competition and allow Macmillan Education (and its sub-licensees) the non-exclusive right to use this video in promotions and products as it shall see fit without restriction or payment of any fee. Any video that does not comply with this term will be excluded from the competition. Macmillan Education does not accept responsibility for any breach of this term.
- The competition is not open to employees, agents, contractors, or consultants of Macmillan Publishers Ltd, or their families or anyone connected to the competition.
- The winners will be judged on 6th June 2011 by representatives of Macmillan Education and an independent judge. The winners will be the videos which in the opinion of the judges best meets the entry criteria. The judges' decision is final and at their own discretion and no correspondence will be entered into.
- Presentations can be submitted and uploaded online via www.macmillanenglish.com/business or saved to disc and sent to: The Business Experience competition, Macmillan Education, Between Towns Road, Oxford, OX4 3PP, UK. We will also accept links to videos that have been uploaded to video share websites. Entries will not be returned by us.
- Entries must be viewable/legible to the judges. Entrants may be requested to reformat their entries if it cannot be viewed on receipt. Entries that exceed the recommended word limit will not be judged. Macmillan Publishers Ltd is not responsible for incorrect email or postal addresses or for entries which are lost or mislaid for any reason, or for problems with entries outside our control.
- Winners will be notified within 14 days of the closing date.
- The winners will be contacted direct to inform them they have won and their names will be posted on the website along with their winning videos.
- Prizes are non-transferable and no cash or other alternatives are available.
- No purchase necessary.
