

Contents

Page	Unit	Content
4	Introduction
6	1 January: Welcome to Seatec!	Meeting people Small talk Self-introductions Making introductions
12	2 February: An important visitor	Presenting information Openings / Introductions Guiding a visitor: making suggestions
18	3 March: What's on the agenda?	Meetings and discussions Stating a topic Ending a meeting Opening a meeting Giving and explaining reasons
24	4 April: That's a great idea!	Meetings and discussions Agreeing and disagreeing Moving through a meeting
30	Review 1–4
32	5 May: I'll call you back	Telephoning Using voicemail Taking / Leaving a message
38	6 June: Can I get there on foot?	Understanding gestures Asking for information Giving directions
44	7 July: Best wishes, Amy Lee	Reading and writing email Openings / Closings Formal and informal language Purpose / Conclusion
50	8 August: That's a good question!	Presenting information Delivery (eye contact / voice) Dealing with questions Giving and receiving feedback Endings / Conclusions
56	Review 5–8
58	9 September: Does he have enough experience?	Reading and writing a résumé Supporting opinions Describing experience
64	10 October: Tell me about yourself	Interviewing Talking about your future Describing your background Talking about your strengths
70	11 November: How about sending some calendars?	Selecting gifts Explaining a problem / mistake Giving and accepting an apology
76	12 December: I need to work harder	Reviewing performance Asking for clarification Self-evaluation Responding to feedback Checking understanding
82	Review 9–12
107	TOEIC® practice
119	Performance language review
120	Glossary & Look it Up	125 Common irregular verbs

Viewpoints	Business task	Business task file
Breaking the ice	An ice-breaking session for new employees	84
Stereotypes / Generalizations	An orientation for foreign students	86
Decision-making	Redecorating the office	88
Meeting styles	A French hypermarket	91
Automated voicemail	Teleconference guidelines	93
Non-verbal communication	Explaining body language	95
Email	Planning a meeting	97
Presentations	On-the-job use of English	99
Résumés	Writing a résumé	101
Interviews	Who should we hire?	103
Cultural mistakes	Choosing a wedding gift	105
High context / Low context	Evaluating and recommending	