

20 That's not right!

Overview

Students work in pairs to produce a three-part conversation they might have during a business lunch. The language of describing food and drink is revised.

Preparation

One copy of the worksheet for each student.

Procedure

- 1 Divide the class into pairs and give each student a copy of the worksheet. Read the instructions with the class and make sure everyone understands what they have to do.
- 2 Students read out the pairs of sentences to each other one by one and score through the one they think is wrong each time.
- 3 Check the answers with the class.
- 4 Students act out all three stages of the conversation by reading the correct sentences. Students A read the odd numbered sentences, and Students B read the even numbered sentences.
