The Business is a multi-level business English course which offers the student a cutting-edge blend of electronic and print material. The syllabus is organized by topic and has been developed from detailed research into business-related degree courses in leading European institutions.

The Business is particularly suitable for students studying business at college or university, but the course will also appeal to working business people who need to enrich their vocabulary and express themselves more authoritatively beyond their immediate professional context.

Level: pre-intermediate, takes students from Council of Europe level A2 to B1

The Business offers you:
- an integrated self-study DVD-ROM, including video, interactive workbook, business dilemmas, interactive business documents, progress tests and all the course audio.
- a flexible modular structure which offers users maximum choice and flexibility. The units are divided into speaking, writing, vocabulary, grammar, business knowledge and case study modules.
- thorough and detailed language support including a Student's Book word list, grammar reference and extensive grammar and vocabulary practice material.
- systematic development of specific business language skills – from report writing to stating your views persuasively in a meeting.

The Business package includes: Student's Book and DVD-ROM pack, Teacher's Book with notes and extra photocopiables, Audio CDs and a Website with tests, course updates and innovative supplementary materials.
1 Living abroad

1.1 About business  Working abroad

Discussion

1 Look at the people in the photos. They all work away from home. Read the quotes below and match them with the people.

1 I work abroad but I never stay in one country for very long. I install software systems and train people how to use them. I'm in Thailand at the moment and I'll be here for another six months.

2 My university has links with engineering firms in Germany. As part of my degree I'm working for one of them in Hamburg.

3 I spend two months every year in India buying supplies for my jewellery business. At the moment I'm staying in Jodhpur.

4 I spend ten months every year working abroad. I never know where I'm going to be. It's always in places where there are medical emergencies.

Have you ever lived or worked abroad? Do you know anyone who lives or works abroad? Compare your answers with a partner.

Collocations

2 You are going to read an article about how to get a job abroad. Before you read match a word on the left with a word on the right to make a collocation.

1 career a) process 5 degree e) letter
2 work b) language 6 cover f) an application
3 foreign c) placement 7 short g) subject
4 application d) ladder 8 withdraw h) list

Reading for detail

3 Read the article and mark the sentences T (true) or F (false). Change any false sentences to make them true.

1 To have a successful career these days you need to have experience of working abroad.

2 A work placement abroad will help your application attract attention.

3 Nannette Ripmeester thinks that the Euro CV is the best kind of CV to use when looking for a job.

4 You need to check that your employers will recognise your degree subject.

5 CVs are more important than cover letters.

6 A cover letter in France may be studied by a specialist.

7 Sarah Hall withdrew her application for a job in Spain because she didn't like the questions in her interview.

8 When working abroad you should behave in a similar way to those around you.

1 Who was in Venezuela last year?

2 Who hopes to get a good reference from their company?

3 Who found the food strange they first arrived?

4 Who is going on holiday when their job is finished?

5 Who is staying in an expensive hotel?

6 Who has a lot of business contacts in the country where they are?
Discussion

In small groups discuss the questions.
1. Which countries would you like and not like to go and work in?
2. What problems do you think people who work abroad have?
3. Do you think working abroad is essential for a successful career? Why / Why not?

IN today’s competitive job market, not spending time abroad can seriously damage your chances of climbing the career ladder. It is no surprise then that more and more graduates and professionals are looking for opportunities to live and work in a foreign country.

With record numbers of workers hoping to relocate, it is no longer enough to have done a work placement abroad or to speak a foreign language. “This is no longer something that makes you different,” says Nannette Ripmeester, director of Expertise in Labour Mobility. “It is something employers expect.”

But even if you are a strong candidate, the application process for foreign jobs is far from straightforward. The EU has introduced the Euro CV to standardise application procedures throughout Europe, but Ripmeester believes that a culturally adapted CV is better. “What do I mean by that? For example, in the UK, it is customary to add hobbies and interests at the bottom of the page. In Italy however, that information is not necessary.”

When you write your CV it is also a good idea to check whether a photo is necessary and whether an English-language CV should be written in American or British English. Another point to think about is whether or not employers will recognise your degree subject, especially when you have studied a subject, such as Wireless Network Systems, which doesn’t necessarily translate into another language and culture.

You also need to consider the cover letter, the first thing that an employer will read. Approaches differ from country to country:

- The CV right but the cover letter wrong and you destroy your chances of getting short-listed for interview because the cover letter is the first thing that an employer will read. The CV is the mirror of your communication and appearance.

British usually write long letters to draw attention to relevant sections on the CV, the Italians want one or two sentences and the French expect candidates to handwrite detailed letters which may be analysed by handwriting experts.

When it comes to interviews, make sure you know about the work culture and understand the importance different countries place on language and speech. For example, the French use short sentences and hate silence, while Scandinavians have a deep respect for pauses. You may think these points are not important but by not paying attention, you are showing that you do not respect the culture of the country you wish to work in.

Making a mistake at the interview is something Sarah Hall knows all about. She is from Liverpool in the UK and has worked in Germany, Sweden and Spain. “My advice is be aware of ‘culture clash.’ In Britain there is usually a maximum of two interviews. In southern Europe they will call you back for a third or fourth interview. I lost a very good job in Spain when I thought they weren’t serious. I withdrew my application because they asked me to go for a fourth interview. Looking back, I now realise they were doing as they always do. I behaved wrongly.”

“It’s important to show that you understand the working culture. Adapting a similar style of dress to your co-workers, eating the kind of food they eat, enjoying similar activities – these things help to win trust and respect.”

“Think of yourself as a cultural chameleon, mirror the kind of messages you get about communication and appearance. People like people who remind them of themselves, and nobody likes what they don’t understand.”

1.2 Vocabulary Living abroad

Discussion
1 Look at the picture above. What everyday problems do people who live abroad have?

Reading and vocabulary
2 Read the extracts from an article on living abroad. Find the correct heading for each extract.

health  opening a bank account  mobile phones  accommodation

3 Read the texts again and use the words in the boxes to fill in the spaces.

bills  notice  contract  deposit  apartment

credit cards  salary  overdraft

To open a bank account in another country you will need to show your passport, proof of earnings, proof of your address and residency. It is also likely that you will be expected to show proof that your monthly (6) will be paid into this account. Remember that rules regarding banks are not the same in every country. You have to pay for an (7) on your account in France, and the rules on (8) can differ greatly, make sure you check before you sign up!

Search for the keywords moving abroad advice to read more about what you need to do when moving to another country.

CARMEN, from Brazil, working for a pharmaceutical company in Auckland

PETRA AND CRIS, from Germany, working as architects in Nice

MR GOODMAN from the USA, working for Athens Bank in Greece

YUKI from Japan, working for an engineering company in Copenhagen

Internet research

check-up insurance scheme national health service

top-ups landline contract number

In most countries you have to pay for medical treatment. For trips of up to three months in Europe, the European Health Insurance Card may allow you to be treated for free by the (9)______ of the country you are in. Your employer may have an (10)______ that you can join or you might want to take out your own insurance policy. This will help you if you need to see a doctor while you are abroad. You may need to register with a doctor and you may also need to have a (11)______.

In many countries, the process of buying a mobile phone is straightforward: you choose the phone and the provider you want, you are then given a (12)_______. Italy is one exception, where you will need your national ID card and your tax code. When you don’t know how long you are planning to live in the country, many people choose prepaid packages that allow (13)_______. This means you can cut off the service when you want without worrying about being tied into a (14)_______. These days many providers also offer wireless Internet access meaning you won’t need to have a (15)______ put into your flat or apartment.

Giving advice

Look at the eight pieces of advice for people who are going to live abroad. For each set of four match the beginning with the correct ending.

1 You might have to pay two month’s rent a) for free with most banks.
2 When you move out of a flat b) your landlord will check the inventory.
3 You can have an overdraft c) to withdraw money from a cash point.
4 You can use your bank card from home d) as a deposit before you move into a flat.
5 You need to be registered with a doctor e) broadband access in the area where you live.
6 Most employers include medical insurance f) means you don’t need to sign a contract for your mobile phone.
7 Using top-ups g) to get medical treatment.
8 You need to check that there is h) as part of their employment package.

1.3 Grammar Present simple and prepositions of time

Test yourself: Present simple

1. Read four descriptions of people’s jobs. Write the correct form of the missing verbs into the text. Find the correct job for each text.

   computer programmer  architect  human resource manager  business student

   | attend | enjoy | do | spend | like |

   1. There are only two of us in the department, so I attend a bit of everything! I enjoy a lot of long meetings – many of these are related to do budgets and to company policy development and I like them. I also spend a lot of time interviewing candidates for jobs. This is one of the areas of the job I do the most.

   2. My company do educational software for primary school children. Usually I attend on maths projects but we also do Spanish language learning programs. Sometimes I spend to Spain for meetings but I enjoy most of the time at a desk in my office.

   3. I need to buy my student loan so I have to find a job before the end of the year when my course finishes. Every day, I spend the Internet for suitable job vacancies and I think the national and local newspapers to look at the job ads. I also buy my CV to companies I am interested in working for, even if they not have any vacancies at the moment.

   4. Normally I attend one or two projects over a three or four-year period. My latest project is a church and I not have very excited about it. The church not have very old and it like enough light. I need to design some more windows. Every week I think the Bishop to talk about the project. Sometimes he not think my ideas but other times he think they’re great.
Complete the text about Elspeth from Germany using prepositions of time from the Refresh your memory box.

I came to London about six months ago. I started my job as a wine buyer at Marks & Spencer (1) February. To be exact, I started (2) February 14th. Before coming here, I worked at a winery in South Africa and before that, (3) 2004, I was in New York State working as an au pair. No matter where I am in the world, I always phone my parents (4) the weekend. I try to call them (5) Sundays (6) 6 o’clock (7) the evening. The other thing I try to do is go home for Christmas. I do like to spend time (8) Christmas with my family. If you ever get the chance, you really should go to Germany (9) December. The German Christmas markets are the best in the world.

Listening for detail

1.09–1:15 Listen to seven descriptions of national festivals and and write the date.

1 Australia Day  5 April Fool’s Day
2 Boxing Day (UK)  6 Showa Day (Japan)
3 Groundhog Day (USA & Canada)  7 Day of the Dead (Mexico)
4 Bastille Day (France)

Listen again. What does each holiday celebrate? What happens?

Question forms

Use the present simple to make questions for these answers.

1 From a small village in south-west France called Marsac.
2 Usually at 9am but sometimes at about 8.45.
3 Languages? English and French quite fluently and also a bit of Chinese.
4 In a small apartment near the centre of town.
5 Usually by bus, but if the weather is really good I sometimes walk.
6 I usually go on holiday in June.
7 Sometimes in the company canteen, but more often I go to the café round the corner.

Work with a partner. Take it in turns to ask and answer the questions.

Discussion

Work with a partner. Describe a local festival or custom either in your home town or the place where you are studying. Think about special food, clothes and typical activities that take place on this day.

1.4 Speaking  Making small talk

Discussion

1. Look at the tips for small talk below. What is small talk? Do you think the tips are useful?

Tips for small talk

TECHNIQUE ONE
Always wear a Whatzit

What's a Whatzit?
Some people have developed a clever technique that works well for social or corporate networking purposes. The technique requires no special skill on your part, only the courage to wear a Whatzit.

A Whatzit is anything unusual—a unique brooch, an interesting scarf, a strange tie, a funny hat. A Whatzit is any object that draws people’s attention so that they walk over and ask, ‘Uh, what’s that?’

TECHNIQUE TWO Whoozat?
What to do when you haven’t got a Whatzit…

Like a politician, go to the host and say, ‘That man / woman over there looks interesting. Who is he / she?’ Then ask for an introduction.

-or-

Find out about the stranger’s job, interests or hobbies. The host might say, ‘Oh, that’s Joe Smith. I’m not sure what his job is, but I know he loves to ski.’ Aha, you’ve just been given the icebreaker you need. Now walk over to Joe Smith and say, ‘Hi, you’re Joe Smith, aren’t you? Susan was just telling me what a great skier you are. Where do you ski?’

Reading for detail

2. Read the article below about small talk to find:
   1. three topics that you can make small talk about
   2. two topics that you can’t make small talk about
   3. two tips for managing small talk.

What is small talk?
Your company sends you to an important international conference in the USA. While you are travelling from the hotel to the conference centre you meet somebody who works for the Spanish division of your company for the first time. The conversation that you have will probably be what we call small talk.

What do people make small talk about?
There are certain safe topics that people usually make small talk about. The weather is probably the number one thing. Sometimes even friends and family members discuss the weather when they meet or start a conversation. Sports news is a common topic, especially if a local team is doing extremely well or badly. If there is something that you and the other speaker have in common, that may also be acceptable to talk about. For example, if the bus is extremely full and there are no seats available you might talk about reasons why.

There are also some subjects that are not considered acceptable when making small talk. Personal information such as salaries or divorce are not talked about between people who do not know each other well. Negative comments about another person not involved in the conversation are also not acceptable: when you do not know a person well you cannot be sure who their friends are. It is also not wise to continue talking about an issue that the other person does not seem comfortable with or interested in. Lastly, avoid one word answers, and ask questions to show that you want to keep the conversation going.
Listening for gist
Listen to three conversations where people are making small talk. For each conversation decide:
1. where the people are
2. what small talk topics they talk about
3. how many questions the speakers ask to keep the conversation going.

Listening for detail
Listen to the conversations again and write the questions that the speakers use.

| 8. | you do? |
| 9. | your job? |
| 10. | visit India? |

Making small talk
Work with a partner. Choose one of the topics below to make small talk about. Student A should prepare some things to say about one of the topics, Student B should prepare a list of questions to keep the conversation going.
1. Your last weekend
2. Your job/studies
3. Your journey to class today
4. What you’re doing after class
5. The last time you went to a restaurant
6. The weather today

Beginning and ending small talk
Put the words in the correct order to make some useful phrases for beginning and ending small talk.
1. but Sorry have to go I now. 5. your was How weekend?
2. meeting It’s nice been you. 6. Enjoy rest the of the conference.
3. believe can’t how busy it is. 7. to talking Nice you.
4. journey have you Did a good here? 8. It’s weather lovely today.

Mark each phrase B (for beginning a conversation) or E (for ending a conversation).
Can you add any more?

Work in small groups. You are all at an international conference and it is the break between two presentations. You don’t know any of the other people in your group and so you need to make small talk. Student A turn to page 110. Student B turn to page 111. Student C turn to page 112. Student D turn to page 113.

5 Where is Ms Lee going?

Subject: Visit to Osaka Securities
Dear Mr Watanabe,
Thank you for your email received March 21. With regard to my visit next month I need to tell you that I will arrive at Osaka airport at 14.30 on Thursday 14th April. As this will be my first visit to Japan I would be very grateful if somebody could meet me at the airport. Also, would it be possible for you to make a reservation at a nearby hotel for me? I would really appreciate it.
In addition, could you possibly send me a copy of the agenda for our meeting and a copy of your most recent sales figures.
Please accept my apologies but my colleague Ms Lee will not be able to join me on this visit as she is attending an investment conference in Singapore at the same time.
I look forward to meeting you,
With best regards,
Lars Oluffson
Informal language

Read another email and find informal phrases to match the phrases in bold in exercise 2.

Subject: Visit to Osaka Securities

Dear Haruki,

Thanks for your message. Re next month’s visit to Japan, I’m going to arrive at Osaka airport at 14.30 on Thursday 14 April. This will be my first visit to Japan so can you send somebody to meet me at the airport please? Can you book a hotel for me near your offices too?

Also, can you please send me a copy of the agenda for our meeting and a copy of your most recent sales figures?

I’m sorry but my colleague Ms Lee won’t be able to come with me as she is going to an investment conference in Singapore at the same time.

See you next month,

All the best,
Lars

2. assistance b) help  6. grateful  f) more
3. require c) tell  7. near future  g) happy
4. attend d) need  8. would like  h) soon

Read Manuela’s email to Laura and write it as a formal email. Use the expressions from 2 and words from 4.

Subject: Art and design conference

Dear Laura

Thanks for your last message.

I want to tell you about next month’s arts and design conference. It is going to be held in Sao Paulo at the First Conference Centre from June 18 to 21. The agenda for the conference is attached. Can you have a look and choose the sessions that you want to come to?

Please also tell me if you need any extra help. I can book a hotel for you or arrange for somebody to meet you at the airport.

I will be very happy if you can let me know soon.

All the best,
Manuela Calo

Writing

Write a formal reply to Manuela’s email. Use the information below:

- you are going to attend the conference
- you can not stay for all three days
- the sessions you want to go to are New design methods and The future of art
- ask Manuela to make a reservation at a hotel
- ask Manuela to organize a taxi to pick you up at the airport.
