Case Studies – 28 realistic business English
course at www.macmillanenglish.com/business

Key benefits:
• The four levels not only provide English language support, but underpin key business skills needed by business men and women of the future.
• The interactive modular approach engages students and allows the course to be adapted to fit a class’s needs.
• Students can work independently on the DVD-ROM (included with the Student’s Book) and face business dilemmas, watch videos related to the unit, view model business documents and ‘get promoted’ as they progress.
• Class audio recordings on the DVD-ROM support the Student’s Book with rolling scripts so students can do further practice independently.
• The Teacher’s Book really provides extra learning resources for the busy professional so they can study anywhere.
• Real-world tasks and case studies encourage learners to sharpen their communication skills and draw on their own experiences at work.
• The Teacher’s Book addresses how to deal with 1:1 classes, allowing for those students who cannot attend regular classes because of their workload.
• A variety of accounts in the listening exercises reflects the global nature of 21st century business life.

Business English Handbook

Business Vocabulary Builder
Intermediate/Upper Intermediate (B1/B2)
Essential Business Vocabulary Builder
Intermediate/Upper Intermediate (B1/B2)
These two levels of vocabulary builders help business English students, at both a pre-intermediate and intermediate level, enrich and expand their vocabulary within a business context. The first half is devoted to business vocabulary and practice, and the second half to skills work. Visually, especially in terms of the human ‘organism’, structure the material and make it instantly accessible.

Business Grammar Builder
Intermediate/Upper Intermediate (B1/B2)
Essential Business Grammar Builder
Pre-intermediate/Intermediate (A2/B1)
This two-level series of grammar reference books is aimed at professional adults who need to maintain and practise their English in a business context. They present and practise the fundamental grammar requirements for students studying business English at either elementary or intermediate to upper intermediate level.
